AREAS OF PRACTICE

- Private Equity
- Mergers and Acquisitions
- Financing

Octavio L. Hernández is a Partner in the Private Equity, Mergers and Acquisitions (M&A) and Financing practices at Sainz Abogados, S.C. He mainly represents private equity funds and financial institutions (foreign and domestic) in investments, divestments, and financings in Mexico and abroad. Octavio's clients participate in several industries, including manufacturing, asset management, restaurants, franchises, and professional services. In addition, Octavio advises various groups of entrepreneurs in Mexico.

In the area of mergers and acquisitions, Octavio provides his clients with experience regarding sophisticated M&A processes, resulting from strategic acquisitions (e.g., equity, assets or business units), as well as experience regarding M&A processes resulting from shareholder conflicts or corporate reorganizations.

With respect to financing, Octavio commonly represents financial institutions and debt funds, as creditors as well as corporate borrowers, in their credit operations and guarantee structures, including subordinated debt structures (mezzanine).
